Subject: Wonderful lectures!

Dear Ambassador Nazareth,

What a true pleasure it was for my husband and I to partake in your very passionate and informative lectures on Islamic Fundamentalism and the lives lived by Gandhi and Mandela while we were passengers onboard RSS! You remain one of the most inspiring speakers I have ever had the pleasure to listen to and only wish that I could continue on that enlightening journey with you! Regrettably, distance sets us apart.

I spoke to my sons about the impact you had had on me and that I had purchased three copies of your book- one for me and one for each of them so they could also appreciate your writings.

On a personal note, you did so touch my heartstrings, especially during your passionate recounts of both Gandhi and Mandela's influential legacies. I believe that it is your own inner beauty as a compassionate and deeply spiritual person that shone through and so moved me. It left an imprint in my heart, which I truly hope will stay with me for a lifetime!

With sincere best wishes for a very healthy and fulfilling New Year.
